NOTE FROM THE JURY

Note number: 6

Time: 12:04

1. The Jury has reached a unanimous verdict ☐

Or

2. The Jury has the following question:

Will the amount entered into question 6 be granted to be paid to the plaintiff, in addition to what is awarded in question 3?
Or, does our answer to question 6
not result in payment to plaintiff?

L. M.
Presiding Juror

The Court's Answer To Jury Question 6:

If you find that the Defendant Disney is liable for vicarious copyright infringement, then the Plaintiff Rearden is entitled to receive both an award of its actual damages and the portion of Disney's profits from Beauty and the Beast attributable to DD3's copyright infringement.

You may not include in an award of profits any amount that you took into account in determining actual damages.

J.S.T.

your honor-

when evidence is submitted, there is inconsistency to showing
it to the jury on the screens.

Is that intentional?

The randomness of showing the evidence can be confusing.

Thanks.
